

Oceania Customs Organisation Secretariat

COUNTERING SERIOUS ORGANIZED CRIME

Ms. Laisa Kubuabola-Naivalurua
Operations Manager
OCO Secretariat

OVERVIEW

- Reality – What is happening now?
- OCO's Strategy
- Work Program Activities
- Way Forward

REALITY

- Drivers of transnational organized crime in the Pacific:
 - Globalisation and improved connectivity;
 - Technology advances;
 - Influx of Outlaw Motor-Cycle Gangs (OMCGs) and deportees of Pacific Island origin;
 - Rising demand for drugs in the lucrative Australian and New Zealand markets.

Source: GI-TOC Transnational Organized Crime and the Pacific Islands paper series

OCO's STRATEGY

Strategic Priority Area Two: Law Enforcement and Border Security

Enhance coordinated border management

Strengthen intelligence-driven risk management capacity

Combat transnational organized crime including cybercrime

INTELLIGENCE-DRIVEN RISK MANAGEMENT

COORDINATED BORDER MANAGEMENT

WAY FORWARD

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION

